Question by RE Investor: How do I make an offer to an auction company on a house in a bankruptcy sale?

I'd like to make an offer on a house being auctioned by an auction house. There is a bankruptcy involved. However, I just saw the exact same house listed with a real estate agent, and can't understand how this is possible. Anyone with any experience buying real estate through auction houses?

Happens all the time. The people are most likely trying to sell before the auction. More often than not, buying before or after the auction is a better way to go, but every case is different, and it depends on a lot of factors.
